Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue Underway for Missing Seiad Valley Man

June 12, 2017

The Siskiyou County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) has initiated a search and rescue (SAR) mission for a missing Seiad Valley man, last seen on Friday, June 9, 2017 near his home. According to a family member, Mr. Theodore Condit, 55, of Seiad Valley, told a family member he was going to walk into a nearby wooded area in vicinity of Seiad Creek Road. SCSO investigators believe Mr. Condit is endangered and a SCSO SAR team was sent to Seiad Valley to search the nearby area.

According to Sheriff Jon Lopey, "We are very concerned about Mr. Condit's well-being and as of today (Monday, June 12th) no sign of Mr. Condit has been found by SAR team members. Anyone with information about Mr. Condit's whereabouts is urged to contact the SCSO 24-hour Dispatch Center at (530) 841-2900.
