The Siskiyou County Sheriff's Office received a call Thursday, June 22nd at 09:00 a.m., reporting a possible burglary at the Horse Creek Community Church. The Community Church reported damage to an entry door and the theft of several items including several electronics such as a TV and speakers. This case remains under investigation.

On Saturday, June 24th, the Siskiyou County Sheriff's Office responded to All Saints Catholic Church in Happy Camp for a burglary report. According to the report, the front door of the church had been damaged and several items were reportedly taken.

The victim reported the donations from the donation box and a brass vessel also known as a ciborium were among the items taken. The ciborium is described as a brass cylindrical container approximately 3 inches high with a lid displaying a  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch cross on top.

At this time it is unclear if these incidents are related. They are being investigated independently. Anyone with information regarding either incident are encouraged to contact the Sheriff's Office at (530) 842-8316 (Anonymous Tip Line) or the 24 – hr. Dispatch line at (530) 841-2900.
