

Siskiyou Revive Grantee Highlights

Siskiyou Revive gave each participant the opportunity, resources, and advocacy to improve their mental health and SUD outcomes and to reduce or eliminate actions that cause recidivism through supportive transitional housing and evidence-based practices.

Revive offered paid housing, a case manager, an SUD counselor, mental health and SUD treatment, job readiness training, basic life skills development, and as appropriate, any other services to foster wellness and rehabilitation.

Outcomes

Revive had 102 applicants and 47 people were accepted into the program. We made excellent progress toward meeting the program's goals and objectives. Sixteen participants successfully graduated from the program. Other highlights include:

- Average attendance rate for scheduled services was 91%.
- Data shows that clients participating in their treatment planning.
- 93% of all drug tests were negative.
- All participants who are not working are referred to participate in community service.
- Although the participants had moderate to high risk for recidivism, the program only had two minor incidents with local law enforcement.

Revive Homes

The men's home (left) has seven bedrooms, and the women's home (right) has five bedrooms. Both homes are located within walking distance to services and include an office, outdoor gardening area, shared kitchen and living room spaces, fenced yards, and private bedrooms.

My name is Thomas, and I was released from federal prison in 2021 with only the clothes on my back. My counselor at SCBH told me about the Revive program, but I thought it was another recovery program that just wanted money I didn't have. I learned that it was a FREE program that only required me to attend a few SUD classes, trauma classes, and AA meetings; this program changed my life. I seriously don't know where I would be if it weren't for Revive. I nervously attended my first job fair and went to every booth, and I got a job! The company I worked for then asked me to run the booth at the next job fair! It was truly amazing to be a part of that, and I owe it to the Revive program! Revive gave me an opportunity to save up money and get on my feet. The day I graduated Revive, the SCBH Director asked me if I would like to apply to be an SUD counselor, and I did! I get emotional when I talk about this because it really means a lot to me and where my life is today. I know I put in the work, but I had the support that I needed every step of the way, and I am forever grateful for that. Thank you for helping me change my life because now I am making an impact on other people's lives!
